

The villages of Alvingham and North Cockerington joined together recently for the unveiling of a Millennium bench in the churchyard. Both the oldest and youngest resident of the two villages were on hand to help in the special occasion. George Motson (89) is pictured with baby Thomas Lee (11weeks) and his mum Rebecca. See inside the Leader for the full story and photographs.