

The people of Alvingham are annually cheered in spring by the spectacle of daffodils lining their entry to the village from Louth. Supplied by PH&GB Shucksmith using subsidy money from the government. Over 3 tons of bulbs were planted in all.

