

VILLAGERS LOVE THEIR NEW SEAT

THE youngest and the oldest resident of Alvingham were present when a millennium loveseat was unveiled in Alvingham churchyard.

Villagers from North Cockerington were also present for the occasion.

George Motson, seated left, with Mrs Motson, is the most senior villager at 89 and the newcomer, in the arms of his mother, Rebecca, is 11-week-old Thomas Lee.
